Bosonic mean field limit and discrete Schrödinger equation

Boris Pawilowski

University of Zagreb

We deal with approximations of the time-dependent linear many body Schrödinger equation with a particles interaction potential. We consider the bosonic Fock space in a finite dimensionial setting and introduce a discrete version of the Schrödinger equation. Mathematical tools include the reduced density matrices and Wigner measure techniques exploiting the formal analogy to semi-classical limits.